

Position: Junior Software Engineer
Objective: Responsible for software development of company products and internal applications.
Department: Information Technologies – Research and Development
Report To: Software Manager
Education: B.S. in Computer Science (minimum)
Experience:

- Familiarity with software development for Microsoft Windows.
- Familiarity with the Microsoft .NET and/or .NET Compact Framework development environments (C# and/or VB.NET programming languages).
- Familiarity with the C and C++ languages.

Requirements: This position requires good planning, time management and organizational skills. Candidate must be strongly detail-oriented and possess excellent communication skills for trouble shooting problems.

Location: Position is available in Port Townsend, WA or Woodbury, NY.

Work Hours: Full-Time, M-F

Availability: Immediate

Overall Responsibility Summary:

Development of new software products and Maintenance of existing company software products

- .NET and .NET Compact Framework Applications (C# and/or VB.NET)
- C / C++ Applications
- Minor graphics work in third party tools for icons and bitmaps
- Installation and Upgrade Packages using Install Shield

Testing

- All software modified or written by individual
- Assist in testing other developers' code
- Prepare testing outlines for Quality Control Department
- Assist Quality Control Testers

Documentation

- Project Design Documentation
- Source Code Archive preparation

Technical Support

- Assist in training Call Center personnel on use of new/modified applications
- Assist Call Center in tracking down bugs/problems through resolution